Geocache Challenge

Check out the library's geocache challenge! This is a scavenger hunt that will take you to various places in the library. At the end, you will even be rewarded with a small gift. The first clue is outside the building to the left of the main doors. (HINT: Look for it hanging on a flag stand.)

Take & Make Crafts for Teens

Each month a new Take & Make craft will be set out in the Teen area. Pick up a craft kit containing all you'll need for a 'do-at-home' craft. Basic supplies such as glue and scissors will not be included in the craft kits. There will be a new craft each month. Pick them up early so you don't miss out! Take & Make crafts are free, courtesy of the Friends of the Gates Public Library. You can also request Take and Make crafts be brought to you via curbside pick-up if you prefer.

SAT and ACT Online Practice Tests

for STUDENTS

Presented by www.Chariotlearning.com

Take an official, full length test under proctored conditions in the comfort of your own home or other quiet location and find out your score as soon as you are done!

Registrants will login over Zoom and take a full SAT or ACT under the guidance of an expert proctor, who will then help everyone score their tests. We will send registrants a pdf of the test they will take.

What should you have ready when the test starts?

- A printed copy of the provided test (pdf)
- A printed answer grid
- Pencils
- Calculator
- Snacks and water

Advance registration is required. Register by calling the library or by registering on the library's website. Be sure to specify the practice SAT or ACT.

NOTE: This test will be administered under Standard Time. We only administer and score the multiple choice portions of the practice test.

Dates Available:

- Practice SAT: Sunday, October 24, 10am-2pm
- Practice ACT: Sunday, December 5, 10am-2pm

Practice SAT

Saturday, October 23 | 10:00am – 2:00pm | Students in Grades 9 and up
Presented by Chariot Learning (www.chariotlearning.com)

There is no better way to prepare for the official SAT than by taking practice tests under ‘real’ test conditions. Take an officially released, full-length practice exam proctored by a test expert with a roomful of other motivated students under timed conditions. After the test, you will learn how to score the exam and interpret those results! Bring pencils, snacks and a calculator. Registration is required and limited to 25 people. Sign up early so you don’t miss out on this highly popular program. (Please note, there must be at least 6 people registered for us to hold this program, so tell your friends.)

Practice ACT

Saturday, January 15 | 10:00am – 2:00pm | Students in Grades 9 and up
Presented by Chariot Learning (www.chariotlearning.com)

SAT and ACT Online Informational Workshop

for PARENTS & STUDENTS

Presented by www.Chariotlearning.com

Why and What Teens Should Read Outside of School:
Informational session for Parents and Teens (online class)*
Wednesday, October 20th | 6:30-7:30pm | Parents and Teens

We all know that today's teens should read more, but the more salient questions about why or what they should read often go unanswered. Mike Bergin of Chariot Learning has answers to share in the form of research supported facts and strategies for building regular reading habits. What will you learn from this free interactive online seminar?

- Is reading a skill that can be improved?
- How often should teens read to unlock real mastery?
- What are the benefits of stronger reading skills?
- How do broad reading skills impact school grades and test scores?
- What nonfiction and fiction books are best for high schoolers?
- With limited time available, what kind of reading should teens prioritize?

*Registration required for this informational class. Registrants will receive a ZOOM link prior to the session. Class limited to 30 participants.

Online, informational sessions for parents***

Wednesday, September 15th from 6:30pm to 7:30pm

- Wondering what the SAT and ACT are, why they matter, and what you should do about them?
- Curious about evolving policies in college admissions and how they affect your high schooler?
- Panicked about the impact of school closings, test postponements, and activity cancellations on your teen's admission prospects?

Get all the answers from a 25+ year veteran in education...for free!

Join Mike Bergin for a full review of the state of the SAT & ACT, their importance in the admissions process, and how the situation is evolving right now. We will definitely cover planning and timelines, and you will definitely be able to ask questions.

* Register for this session by either calling the library or using the library's website. Zoom login information will be provided.
