Policy for Displays and Exhibits, Bulletin Board and Distribution of Non-Library Materials

Purpose and Scope

Gates Public Library is committed to providing access to educational, informational and cultural resources to the community. The Library encourages the community to connect and engage one another through the sharing of these resources utilizing the library’s designated spaces for individuals to stay informed, learn new perspectives, and discover new ideas. The Library invites community individuals and nonprofit entities to use the library’s display cases, community bulletin board, and atrium slat-wall; and allows for the select distribution of non-library materials as approved by the Library Director.

The following guidelines must be adhered to with an eye for appealing to the wide variety of interests in the Gates community.

The Library will not display: commercial or for-profit materials; materials endorsing or promoting a specific political party, candidate, or position; or materials that proselytize. The Library does not implicitly endorse items or materials included in displays or exhibits.

Displays and Exhibits

Library display cases and exhibits are intended to showcase special projects or collections that interest and inspire community patrons. The Library exhibits artwork or collections that, in its judgment, are appropriate for a public building open to all ages. Display cases and the atrium slat-wall will be available first to the Library and then to approved applicants as space and time allow.

Use of Library display areas are available to approved applicants as scheduled by the Library for a duration no longer than one month at no charge, nor will exhibitors be compensated. Works may not be displayed for sale for the duration of the exhibit; however, business cards may be included in the display.

Exhibitors are responsible for set up, arrangement, and take down of the exhibit. Library staff may not be available to assist. All publicity of the exhibitor may only name or use the Gates Public Library as a site location for the display.

The Library is not responsible for any loss or damage. Individuals or entities using the display spaces are required to sign a waiver releasing the Library from any such claims.

Applications are available on the library’s website (https://gateslibrary.org/displays-and-exhibits/) and at the Circulation Desk.
